Labi Siffre is a British singer, songwriter, musician and poet who wrote the song (Something Inside) So Strong. Labi was inspired to write the song after he watched a documentary which upset him. It was about the Apartheid in South Africa, which showed how people were treated badly because of the colour of their skin. The song has a strong message about finding the strength inside you to rise above challenges that happen in life. Use this information to help with the crossword below.
